

Contents

Vol.3, No.1, June 2008

The logo for the Journal of Curriculum Studies (JCS) features the letters 'JCS' in a bold, white, sans-serif font, centered within a solid red rectangular background.

- An Investigation into the Contemporary Design, Subject Assessment and Technical Support in Teaching the University Oral Interpretation Course for English Majors in China (1)
- Y. Fang, Y. Wang, Y. Wang, Y. Liu and A. Solomon
- The Scientific Inquiry in the Standard of the Primary Science Curriculum in China - the Intended and the Reality..... (6)
- Q. Cai and F. Abdullah
- Learning as Boundary-Crossing in a University Department as Teachers' Workplace (13)
- Y. Liu
- An Aesthetic Contemplation on College Students' Ideological and Political Education..... (19)
- H. Tian and C. Qian
- The Nature of Perlocution (24)
- F. Liu
- Analysis of the European Cultural Identity through EU Cultural Policy (31)
- H. Wang
- What is governance? Has the governance concept added to our understanding of Chinese public administration? (36)
- X. Song
- An Overview of China's Environmental Governance Problems (43)
- Y -C. Chiang and N. Wang
- Green Justice: Dimensions of "Species Value" of Ecological Civilization (47)
- X. Yu and J. Wang